Discussion Participation Grading Criteria

Characteristics of A participation:

These students always have read and understood all of the assignment. They always make interesting comments about the readings that help the class understand the material better. Their comments are clearly presented, to the point, and based on careful reading of the material.

Characteristics of A- participation:

These students have always read all of the assignment; except for very occasional lapses due to midterms or other life-trauma. Even then they have read part of the assignment. They make comments that are to the point and move the discussion forward.

Characteristics of B+ participation:

These students have always read the assignment, although they may have had difficulty understanding it. They occasionally make comments that are to the point and move the discussion forward.

Characteristics of B participation:

These students have usually read most of the assignment. They say things in class, from time to time, that are pertinent to the discussion.

Characteristics of B- participation:

These students have usually read at least some of the assignment. They rarely volunteer comments in class but can speak sensibly about the reading when called upon.

Characteristics of C participation:

There is no evidence that these students have read the assignment. Either they cannot participate in the discussion, or their comments are not based on the assigned readings. These students can participate when they have been given the opportunity to read in class and think about a specific question.

Characteristics of D participation:

These students will not say anything in class and cannot answer simple questions about the readings.

Characteristics of F participation:

These students do not come to class regularly. They do not bring the book or say anything when they do show up.

Class Policies

Practice Graciousness -- Act Honorably

NO CHEATING

When you lie or cheat for any reason you turn yourself into a liar and a cheater. Cheaters are bad and dishonorable people. They are placed in the tenth ditch of the eighth circle of hell in Dante's Inferno. There they are afflicted with loathsome and disgusting diseases. If you hand in someone else's work or copy someone else's work you are cheating and turning yourself into a lousy person. No grade in any class is worth becoming a bad person.

Those who are not dissuaded by moral exhortation but are caught cheating in any way will fail this class.

Dr. Neville's Patent-Pending Draconian Late Paper Policy

Writing assignments are due at the beginning of class. No extensions will be given. Taking extra time with your papers is unfair. As with all tasks in life, do the best job you can with the time you have. Do not hand in your assignments late. Do not even think about handing in your assignments late.

As the flesh is weak, the following procedures are in place in order to deal with the unlikely event of a late paper. No assignment handed in late will receive a grade higher than C. The following scale applies:

1 Day late: A becomes C, A- = C-, B+ = D+, B = D, B- = D-, C = F

2 Days Late: A becomes C-, A- = D+, B+ = D, B = D-, B- = F

3 Days Late: A becomes D+, A- = D, B+ = D-, B = F

4 Days Late: A becomes D, A- = D-, B+ = F

5 Days Late: A becomes D-, A- = F

No papers more than five days late will be read.
