

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON
Department of History
Semester I, 1986-87

HISTORY 901

MR. COOPER

- Sept. 4                   Class Organization
- Sept. 11                 The Heritage of Sectional Strife
                          Michael F. Holt, The Political Crisis of the 1850s
- Sept. 18                 The Civil War Political System
                          William Gilett, Retreat from Reconstruction
                          Michael Perman, Road to Redemption
- Sept. 25                 Populism I
                          Lawrence, Goodwyn, Democratic Promise
                          Robert McMath, Populist Vanguard
- Oct. 2                   Populism II - Georgia as a "Case Study"
                          Steven Hahn, Root of Southern Populism
                          Barton Shaw, The Wool Hat Boys
- Oct. 9                   The Realignment of the 1890s
                          Paul Kleppner, The Cross of Culture
                          Richard Jensen, The Winning of the Midwest
                          Samuel McSeveney, The Politics of Depression
- Oct. 16                 State Level Politics and Reform
                          David Thelen, The New Citizenship
                          Richard L. McCormick, From Realignment to Reform
                          David P. Thelen, Paths of Resistance
- Oct. 23                 National Politics, 1900-1916: Theodore Roosevelt
                          John M. Blum, The Republican Roosevelt
                          George Mowry, Theodore Roosevelt and the Progressive Movement
- Oct. 30                 National Politics, 1900-1916: Woodrow Wilson
                          Arthur S. Link, Wilson, Vols. 1-5
- Nov. 6                   "Psychohistory": The Case of Woodrow Wilson
                          Edwin A. Weinstein, Woodrow Wilson
- Nov. 13                 The National Politics - the "Grand Sweep"
                          Michael McGerr, The Decline of Popular Politics
                          John Milton Cooper, Jr., The Warrior and the Priest
- Nov. 20                 The New Deal
                          Paul K. Conkin, The New Deal
                          Otis Graham, An Encore to Reform
- Nov. 27                 THANKSGIVING
- Dec. 4                   The Longest Postwar: Politics since 1945
                          William E. Leuchtenburg, In the Shadow of FDR
                          Allen J. Matusow, The Unraveling of America
- Dec. 11                 Overview
                          No assignment